

Video Specialist

The Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations has an immediate opening in its Jefferson City Office for a Video Specialist.

Starting Salary: $1,456.00 twice-a-month

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate, videotape, edit and write scripts for weekly podcasts as well as work with IT to post videos and disseminate to share holders and members of the public.
- Develop educational videos for all department programs.
- Design and create animated graphics.
- Oversee the security, operation, and maintenance of equipment utilized in shooting and editing.

Education and Experience:

- Proficient in using Adobe Creative Suite, including Premier and After Effects.
- Creative writing skills essential.
- Ability to lift and transport video, photography, and other related equipment.
- Thorough knowledge of the methods and techniques used in video production, including the use of a green screen and lighting.
- Bachelor's degree in Cinematography and Video Production, Broadcast Journalism or Mass Communications with at least two years of experience in video production, writing and editing.

(Earned graduate credit hours from an accredited college or university in the specified areas may substitute on a year-for-year basis for the required experience at a rate of 24 earned graduate credit hours for one year of experience.) (Additional qualifying experience may substitute on a year-for-year basis for deficiencies in the required education.)

If you are interested in this classification, you need to complete your on line EASe application to get on the register at www.ease.mo.gov by August 12, 2015.

Please review the minimum qualifications for the Video Specialist at:
<http://oa.mo.gov/personnel/classification-specifications/6377>